The tank is connected AND THE TOILETS ARE FLUSHING.

Thanks to the work of our esteemed locals the Yandoit Recreational Reserve Tank is now connected to the reserve and the public toilets are operational in time for the BBQ.

While the primary purpose of the tank is to provide for the public toilets, the committee is offering the use of the tank to the CFA for training purposes.

MYSTERY VANDALISM or modern art!

Local resident woke up to a strange sight. Deliberate vandalism can be ruled out unless the perpetrator had a thing about letter boxes AND street signs. No sign of superman recently so we can rule out an aerobic session.

General consensus: someone took the turn a bit sharp. Could've done the decent thing and left a note. Problem is where to put the note. Postie's going to have to be lateral minded.

HALL NEWS

Changes in the hall. Have you noticed that the new Blinds are up? And the kitchen cupboards have been varnished.

YANDOIT IS A LOVELY TOWN
PARTLY GREEN AND PARTLY BROWN
SOME GOES UP AND SOME GOES DOWN
LOVELY LITTLE YANDOIT (anon)

Everything has been brown for so long and the dams so low.

Wasn't the rain fantastic?

Kangaroos enjoying it too.

YANDOIT FRANKLINFORD CLYDESDALE PLANNING GROUP.

The group is fully functional and with lots planned. Sue Moses from Council is the convenor and you can contact her (53458399) for any information or to join in. New Members welcome.

OTHER INFORMATION

The Asthma Foundation had an information "road show" on 26th October 2009, for information call Eliz Rhook 53458165.

Hepburn L2P is a Simon Evans, Transport Connections Coordinator, Hepburn Shire (53458399) project. The new rules for prospective P platers require 120 logged driving hours to progress from L to P. Studies from Europe indicate that this driving training reduced the road toll for young drivers by 30%.

But it's hard to get someone to drive with. Do you want to volunteer some supervising time? Contact Simon.
